ADVANCE NOTICE

'Lighting the Darkest Corner' - 7th November- 6.30 pm.

On the eve of Remembrance Sunday, military historian and author Christopher Jary, will give a talk in St. Michael and All Angels, East Coker.

'Lighting the Darkest Corner' will explore how influential chaplains have been at the darkest of times and how important their kindness and spiritual support has been to soldiers in combat through the years. In particular Christopher will examine the lives and service of three military chaplains: Geoffrey Studdert-Kennedy MC (aka Woodbine Wille) who set the standard for modern chaplaincy, Theodore Hardy VC DSO MC – one of the most highly decorated non-combatants of the First World War, and Gus Claxton MC, who served with the 2nd Dorsets at the battle of Kohima.

The event is free to attend.

Any donations made at the talk will go to the RBL Poppy Appeal.
